

Steven Ward Found Dead, Unit de Sorciere Enraged, City Rocked

— At midnight last night the body of Stephen Ward was found on the steps of teh Notre Dame de Bascillica church. He had been drained of blood, likely through the hundreds of cuts all over his body, each one spelling out the word ‘Meddler’. The body was quickly turned over to police custody and retrieval, and an investigation is underway.

Steven Ward Is Dead

Joseph Brown, Editor

Over the last twelve hours, the Obscuritùs has been trying to get comments on the issue. So far Jacque Ried, the sorcerer, has been unavailable for comment and is in a bit of a rage. The Unite has been on the war path and are looking to speak to: Alexis Yakumo, Warden Qul Var, Knight Luna, Christian Stiles, Sarah du Notre Dame, and Michael Shore. If you see any of these people, ask them to speak to Ried as part of the investigation. Please also remind them that Ried would be acting extra-legally, as it is not his job to question people with no known relation to the cop (or, well, relations that Ried can't mention to his superiors).

Stephen Ward was often seen as a bit of an ass by the local community, but he was good at his job. One of his talents was actually doing his job where no one else could. We, as folks in the know, relied on him to keep us honest. Many of us can do things making us immune to most cops. One of my reporters can even melt into the shadows, making him the perfect thief. But many of us are honest. But many of use are honest because of Stephen Ward and his efforts. His loss will definitely raise questions into the nature of the future, and very few things will allow us to return to the status quo.

Ried has taken collection from the local community and is offering a ten thousand dollar reward for a single name as to his killer. ■

A variety of training available

Luna, Winter Knight

Supernaturals and morals alike are welcome! Come, check us out! Due to the personal beliefs and feelings of some of the instructors, vampires are not at this time welcome to learn weapons training and werewolves are not at this time welcome to learn magic training. We welcome members to strive to become instructors to allow a wider range of groups for all training types. The personal feelings of the instructors are not to be affiliated with the school at all. Call 1 800 FIGHT ON for more information. ■

A place to speak freely

Plumage opens

Sam Harvestar, HWWTW

One of the great pleasures in life is being able to speak freely without people thinking that you're insane. Many go the The Tabernacle in order to fulfill this desire. Ultimately, however, The Tabernacle is a poor solution. Unless you wear the right stripes, you check part of yourself at the door and having to be less than yourself is against the point.

Diana Altair, a woman after my own heart, provides a solution to this with the recent opening of Plumage. The downstairs runs as a simple bistro, catering to the normals of this city. But look elsewhere if you want a restaurant review – a task I find myself unqualified and uninterested in providing. It is the upstairs to which I would instead draw your attention. For those granted access to the upper floor, Plumage is a place where one can spread one's wings both literally and figuratively. ■

Advice from Ghobe Yas!

Dear Ghobe,

I am a typical Montreal citizen, and I have noticed that there are certain dangers that are growing more threatening in our city, specifically those of attacking werewolves. What can we do?
 —Concerned

Dear Concerned,

Like you, I have noticed the growing menace of werewolves. I think that the best advice I can give you is that if anyone can help, it's our local warden. If you have problems with them, what you need to do is contact him, Qul Zjarr, at 1-800-FIRE-HOT (1-800-347-3468). If you do, that amazing man will surely help you with your problems.

 However, like most citizens, we can't rely on the warden for all our problems, as he is only one human, wonderful though he is. That's why I would also like to point you towards the new training facility in Montreal, the Fight On! school. I have personally been there, and I can assure you, it is the absolute best training in self-defence and offence against terrible things that you can receive. Be it attacking a werewolf or learning the fine art of pyromancy, you will not be let down. This environment offers a free course to help train your body and mind to the incredible levels. In fact, our incredible warden is teaching several courses there, so you know it is a truly wonderful place to be!

 Be sure, from the ghost riders to the werewolf attack, this city had its troubles. But remember, not all werewolves are evil. But there are enough evil werewolves and other dangers that we need to learn to protect ourselves. But no one can help us like our warden.
 Good luck, Concerned.
 Remember, for any problems you have, you can write Ghobe Yas of the Obscuritùs!
