A Cordial Invitation to Discuss the Future of Quebec City

— Hello Fair City of Quebec,

I formally invite all of you to a townhall meeting, this Saturday the 18th of June. It will take place in the Castle Ballroom overlooking the city as a whole. Please, join us, for refreshments, as well as good conversation regarding several proposals.

May We All Live In Interesting Times

The Future is Yours

— This is a very interesting time to be in Quebec City. We've seen the death of Steven Ward and the disappearance of Jacques Reid. Shortly thereafter there was the simultaneous fall of Previs Raith and destruction of the cathedral's threshold. However, these aren't interesting times due to such events for their own sake. No, their importance is that they have lead to a present moment where many paths into the future lie open. Quebec is not expected to remain in its status quo because status quo has been destroyed.

An Administrative Note:

The Obscuritùs has been sold to the entity Crane

— Hopefully this will change nothing for the worse, but will allow us greater freedom as we will be able to hire new staff, pay our current staff better, and also continue to print and continue our free circulation.

If you would like to comment on this - please submit an editorial, with permission to print, or without if you simply want to remain anonymous. Crane does not require that we give him anything we've written, and as of this moment, he will not see the paper until after it is published to the public, preserving our current freedom.

Thank you for your support in this troubled time,
Joseph Brown

I'd Like to Help Solve Your Problems

CRANE

It is my understanding, that there has recently been a number of upsets going on, and I think that they need to be worked out. As it stands, I would like to facilitate helping, and so I will provide a place to work. I wish to help you deal with your problems.

Currently, beyond the members who are in attendance from your fair city, the Queen of the Winter and Summer Courts have offered to come in order to discuss matters about the city, as has a representative of the White Council, the Red Court of Vampires, and local Gypsy Freehold.

If you wish to have dealings with any of these people, please do, as it would allow us to all work things out for the best.

Wishing you well in these troubled times,

Crane

Uncle Qul's Homemade Olive Oil

Hi, I'm Qul Zjarr, founder and proprietor of Uncle Qul's Homemade Olive Oil. I'd like to take a moment to talk to you about the plight of animals in this city. Every day, stray cats, dogs, elephants, etc. die because they are sick, or hungry. But with your help, we can fix this. The Qul Zjarr animal shelter is just one of the wonderful programs started by Uncle Qul's Homemade Olive Oil. And you can help. Simply purchase a bottle or two of Uncle Qul's homemade Olive Oil. 100% of this company's profits will go to charity, to help those in the city who need it. For more information, call 1-800-FIRE-HOT to learn how else you can help, and to find out about all the charities being run by Uncle Qul's Homemade Olive Oil.

What Do You Want?

SAM HARVESTER, HWWTW

Soon there will be a meeting to discuss Crane's desire to purchase the city. Some have expressed confusion about what he means by this and curiosity about what he intends to do if successful. This meeting should hopefully clarify these points. I encourage as many people as possible to attend. Do not interpret this advise as endorsement for his attempt to purchase the city. I do not particularly care whether you agree to his offer or not. The issue at stake here is being informed about your choice.

That's right, you have a choice. This meeting is not to announce what will happen to Quebec City, only something that might. You are able to say yes. You are able to say no. This is only one possible path into the future. Perhaps it may be the one that you want. If not, then find the one that you do.

Right now, this is your city. Yours to improve. Yours to destroy. Yours to give away to others. Whatever. Exercise that ownership, that power. Forge the future that you want to live in.

Advice from Ghobe Yas!

Dear Ghobe Yas,

So I've heard that the white council has appointed a second Warden to Quebec City! Is this true? Does it mean that Warden Zjarr is not as wonderful as we thought?

—Concerned

Dear Concerned,

This is nothing for you to worry about! The white council, in it's infinite wisdom, has decided to appoint the wonderful linguistomancer Guy as a second Warden in Quebec city!

Now, if you've been paying attention to the previous goings on of Guy, you'll notice that he has very little experience as a Warden. However, due to Qul's glowing recommendation, he was appointed. Even Qul, amazing as he is, has his limitations as a Warden, few as they may be.

This combination of Qul's superior combat abilities and wealth of experience, and Guy's stunning prowess of the written word and abilities unrelated to magic, will surely bring a new Golden Age to Quebec City!

I would also like to take this opportunity to officially announce that Qul Zjarr and Guy Levi, in co-operation with Uncle Qul's Homemade Olive Oil are beginning construction of the Warden series of social centres. The Warden childrens hospital, homeless shelter, animal shelter, soup kitchen, and counselling center, all of which are set to open their doors within the next two years.

Certainly, this new partnership will be the best thing to happen to Quebec city since the original appointment of Qul Zjarr as Warden.

Sincerely,

—Ghobe Yas.
