Greetings Citizens of Quebec, Time to Strike a Deal

— I would like to inform all of you that I am going to be holding a meeting of powers. I will be speaking to the police, the MP and MPP, as well as the town council. I will be negotiating the purchase of the city. I expect civility in all respects, and do not wish to harm anyone.

—Crane

Unwanted Wanted Wardens

— The media seems to be villifying a hot new street gang these days. That gang being The Wardens, a group based out of Quebec City. The gang has been implicated in drug dealing and likely involved in a fullscale drug war. Why are the Wardens dealing drugs? The entire concept is ridiculous. The Wardens are up to something. This is the kind of thing that makes us all worried. Even with two Wardens it seems things haven't changed.

I Am Watching

— I am Justin Travin, a local police constable. My goal is to defend this city. And right now it seems beings known as Wardens are the greatest threat to the city. I will be looking to question those people, as well as talk to others in the city about them and their characters.

I am trying to do good and want to work with you, but I am also unwilling to let evil go on under my nose.

— Justin Travin

Fabulous Fireworks

Tonight, at Fight On! combat training academy, see the greatest indoor explosions in Quebec! Fight On! will be hosting a free night of indoor explosions and fireworks! This is a rare event, and tends to fill up quickly, so arrive early, and prepare to be amazed! Hosted by the staff of Fight On!

We Can Help

Picked up a copy of The 73 Eyes of Twilight by accident and need to get rid of it discreetly? Met something you can't properly describe and want to forget? Suffering from non-Euclidean geometry? To solve your problems and keep your head, send a text for help at 27299.

That Feeling

I keep on getting this weird feeling like someone's watching me. Sometimes it happens when there's nobody else around, just cats. So who's watching and how?
